

A-Zone Second Shoot / Resell Procedures

When a blind becomes vacant (after a hunter from the initial draw no longer wishes to hunt the blind) it will become available for second shoot or resell. The following will outline the procedures for second shoot / resell:

1. The individual working the Rondeau Waterfowl Unit Office will keep a written list of hunters for the second shoot / resell. The first hunter who notifies the office of their interest for second shoot / resell will be first on the list; the second hunter to notify will be second on the list and so forth.
2. Every hunter waiting for a second shoot / resell opportunity will be responsible for making sure their name is on the list.
3. A blind becomes available for second shoot / resell when the initial hunter notifies the office that he/she is finished hunting for the day.
4. The first hunter on the list has the first choice on the available blind. If they wish to hunt it they may. If not, they may defer this choice while still maintaining their position on the list. The second hunter now has a choice to hunt the blind, and he/she may defer this choice while still maintaining their position on the list and so forth.
5. Having standing on the second shoot / resell list does not guarantee a blind choice (Initial blind holders may remain at the blinds throughout the legal hunting day).
6. Any hunter from the initial lottery may forgo their initial choice and be added to the second shoot list. (Each hunter is responsible for making their intentions known to the office staff.) Hunters are not allowed to add their names to the second shoot / resell list until the initial lottery has finished or they forgo their initial blind choice from the lottery (meaning you may not be in possession of a blind and be on the second shoot / resell list).
7. The hunter(s) must be personally present in the office at the time of resale of the blind. For the sake of courtesy the office area will include the washroom, or parking lot of the Rondeau Waterfowl Unit Office. If the hunter is not present in these areas he/ she will lose their position on the list and will have to re-register when they return. Please inform the office staff if you will be using the lavatory to avoid any mishaps.

8. A hunter in the marsh may not change blinds by means of sending back word through a third party in any circumstances. (Hunt the blind you chose.)
9. Registered hunters in the marsh may switch blinds by contacting the office via cell phone or radio only if hunters present on the second shoot / resell list decline the blind in question.
10. The second shoot / resell list will be kept until the end of the hunt day. When the staff in the Rondeau Waterfowl Unit Office changes for the day, the order of hunters waiting for second shoot / resell will remain the same.
